

Kansas Collegiate Officials Hall of Fame

Chet Laney

Inducted
1999

Hometown: Topeka, Kansas

Chet officiated college basketball for forty years primarily in the state of Kansas (1944-1984). Chet is mostly known as a football official. For 37 years he officiated college football, twelve years in small college and fifteen years in the Big Eight. Chet officiated seven Division I bowl games and two NAIA National Championship games. He also officiated the college game of the century, the 1971 Oklahoma at Nebraska game in which Nebraska won 35-32.