

Kansas Collegiate Officials Hall of Fame

Howard Roe

Inducted
2002

Hometown: Castle Rock, Colorado

Howard officiated basketball in Kansas for 19 years (1960-1979) for the KCAC, CSIC, RMAC, and KJCCC conferences.

He is best known for his football officiating working in the KCAC, CSIC, KJCCC, and Big Eight from 1977-1983.

Howard went on to officiate in the National Football League from 1984-1996.