Dan Upson

Inducted
1999

Hometown: Manhattan, Kansas

Known as Dr. Dan to his officiating friends, due to his professional career as a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine Professor at Kansas State University, Dan worked as a college basketball official from 1959-1970, primarily in the KCAC.

However, he is better known as a football official working from 1959-1986 with the KJCCC, KCAC, RMAC, CSIC, Missouri Valley, and the Big Eight. His tenure in the Big Eight lasted for sixteen years and included numerous major college bowl games.
